No more GMAGR black box: This map was built using the latest version of CSXGSA. It is an exclusive Map for the Greenville Terminal Add-On. It will work in conjunction with the Greenville Terminal Add-On but requires the Greenville Terminal Add-On to be installed in order to work. It's been almost 9 months since I finished the Greenville Terminal Add-On. I was shocked when I first saw the completed version of the map in the the Greenville Terminal Add-On folder. I almost couldn't believe it. Finally, the greatest thing since sliced bread! Map Feature List: * 2,100+ unique entities (2,300 on Greenville Terminal & 300 on Richmond Terminal) * 5,700+ unique train tracks (6500 on Greenville Terminal & 1000 on Richmond Terminal) * 85+ streets/tunnels * 60+ railroads (24 on Greenville Terminal, 30 on Richmond Terminal, and 6 on a makeshift alternate between Greenville Terminal and Richmond Terminal) * 600+ vehicles (300 on Greenville Terminal, 300 on Richmond Terminal, and 180 on a makeshift alternate between Greenville Terminal and Richmond Terminal) * 40+ commercial buildings * 45+ industrial buildings * Thousands of unique 3d assets

Map Development History: While I was developing the Richmond Terminal Add-On, I never forgot about my original Map for GMAGR, nor did I forget about that group's unfinished Route. I thought about all of the places that were left untouched for some reason or another that would make for a great route. I thought about a route that went from Richmond through Petersburg, Norfolk, and Chesapeake. I thought about a route that went through the
