What's new in Fifa 22:

- FIFA 22 introduces “HyperMotion Technology,” which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay.
- “Live Events” brings you closer to the excitement of the FIFA World Cup, where you can enjoy a game as one of the Brazilian fans and jump behind the goal with Neymar, or have the chance to experience a World Cup match in 4K. Gamers can also watch matches in full match replays, and score goals live on their favorite players.
- Competitions have been altered to add historic matches with a number of new events that can be unlocked and be played in Career mode.
- FIFA 22 now connects to the new FIFA LIVE app for access to competitions throughout the year.
- The Ultimate Team mode has been extended to start with 60 packs, with new items due to be released throughout the first year.
- The Master League mode has been enhanced, including World Cup qualifiers, new commentary, new tactics and players’ updated profiles.

FIFA IP: FIFA 17 and FIFA 18 FIFA Ultimate Team For the first time, Ultimate Team™ is available on FIFA 19 and every update going forward. Access to FIFA Ultimate Team™ content in FIFA 19 requires the game and our online service to be played on PlayStation 4™. Our updates will introduce new features, new content and new ways to purchase items directly from within the game. For more information about the Ultimate Team content in FIFA 19, please visit www.ea.com/fifa Gameplay Engine The new visual engine in FIFA 19 includes 64 players, a lighting system, more daylight and shadows, new player animations, and improved face controls. Player Intelligence Make Better Decisions with New Player Intelligence The updated predictive Player Intelligence system in FIFA 19 provides players with more information about the current state of the game and the players around them. Player Intelligence in FIFA 19 tells you if a player is dribbling the ball or shooting, whether they are about to pass, or when to decide on your next pass. Players receive contextual help when it's most needed, for example, by telling you when to make a run forward or when to call your teammates over for support. This information can be used to make better decisions on the pitch. Your FUT Ultimate Team™ Account Every time you play with FUT on Xbox One, PlayStation 4 or PC, the FUT account and items from your other accounts will stay with you. Our FUT Items Store This allows you to manage your collection of items and keep them in one place. Items that are available to you won't disappear, even if you play an offline tournament, or at other times. The Items Store will be available from day one.
